

100 GREAT BLACK BRITONS

Enter our new competition and win amazing prizes

In 2004, Patrick Vernon OBE (pictured left) created the first 100 Great Black Britons campaign to celebrate black British history. We are launching a new 100 Great Black Britons competition, which runs from Sep 2019 - May 2020, and invite you to join in. It's fun, educational and there are great prizes to win.

Once again, the campaign seeks to highlight the valuable legacy and achievements of black people in Britain and encourages students to share ideas and activities for Black History Month.

Competition Objectives:

- To encourage students to be innovative and creative.
- To promote and develop an awareness and appreciation of diversity, citizenship, inclusion and respect for all.
- For students from diverse backgrounds to feel valued within school and their wider community.
- Encourage young people to take pride in their heritage and the contribution their ancestors made to the development of modern Britain.
- To promote black British history in schools.
- For schools and young people to make use of their local museums and archives to research the stories of local individuals, and lesser known or previously unknown, Great Black Britons.

Winners will be notified in Sep 2020 and will be featured on our website along with the new list of 100 Great Black Britons. Prizes will be presented at school and/or at an awards ceremony in central London.

Schools competition (ages 5 to 16)

We want schools and pupils to research and develop an exciting way to celebrate Great Black Britons in their local school and community.

This could be:

- an event (examples could include a slide presentation, a short film, poetry, a drama etc.)
- a display (such as artwork, photography or exhibition panels)
- teaching resources (maybe a booklet, puzzle or animation)
- a project or campaign (such as recorded interviews, a survey, magazine or lesson plan etc.)
- any other way of promoting the stories of Great Black Britons (perhaps a social media campaign, website design or posters)

Prizes:

Prizes in the form of black/multicultural educational resources (books, games, software packages) will be awarded in the following categories with the following monetary value:

- KS1: £150
- KS2: £200
- KS3: £300
- KS4: £400

Terms & Conditions:

The competition runs from Sep 2019 - May 2020.

Entries must be uploaded to www.100greatblackbritons.co.uk. If it is an event, it will need to be filmed or photographed for the judges to review.

All entries must focus on one or more Great Black Britons featured on www.100greatblackbritons.co.uk OR someone else that deserves recognition.
